Disclosure

Volunteer activities and projects at gardens operated by the Community Gardens of Tucson involve activities that include, but are not limited to, digging, using garden tools, lifting, pouring cement, stretching fence, hanging gates, and working with construction tools on construction sites. At all times, levels of participation are the individual's choice. There is a risk to be assumed by each participant that he/she may suffer an emotional and/or physical disability. Additionally, if the individual has a history of heart disease, diabetes, high blood pressure, high blood cholesterol, seizures, fainting, dizziness, asthma, or any limiting, temporary or permanent injuries or disabilities, this may increase the participant's risk of injury or health impacts.

Release of Liability

I understand that some activities may be physically and emotionally demanding. I affirm that I am in good health and am not under a physician's care for any condition that may affect my ability to participate in the CGT volunteer program. I understand that each participant must assume the risk of physical or emotional injury which could arise from the activities, such as but not limited to, lacerations, strains, fractures, concussions, loss of limb, or death. I release the Community Gardens of Tucson and their employees and agents (collectively) from any and all liability for any injury to me from participation in these activities. This release is valid unless revoked in writing by me. If any portion of this agreement is held to be invalid by a court of law, then it is agreed and intended that all the remainder shall, notwithstanding, continue in full force and effect.
